

Coo-ee?

Everyone closes their eyes.

The teacher selects the Coo -ee -er who remains quiet and still.

Children walk around with eyes closed shake a hand and say Coo - ee.

If the other person responds with Coo - ee they keep going. If they get no reply they have found the coo - ee - er and remain holding hands.

If children finds only clasped hands and silence they may join the coo - ee at any time.

Teacher asks children to open their eyes when everyone has joined hands.

Discussion

What was it like trying to find the Coo - ee?

Did you have trouble? What did you do?

Did it get easier as the game went on? Why do you think that was?

Where you surprised to find who you were holding hands with?
