A Green Pea

Written by Katy Pike

fold

This is the little, green pea.
She is very sweet.

The little, green pea is sitting on a leaf.

fold

She is sitting on a leaf
eating a peach.

fold

The little, green pea is sitting
on a leaf, eating a peach, on a seat,
down at the beach.

She sees the sea and the waves. She feels the sun shining down from the blue sky. It is a lovely day.

The little, green pea falls asleep on the beach by the sea. As she sleeps, she has a dream.

fold

The little, green pea dreams of seals and other beasts. It is a very scary dream.

In her dream, a mean seal is looking for a meal on the beach.

fold

The little, green pea screams,
“Leave me in peace!”

The mean seal eats the little, green pea on a leaf. But there's no need to squeak or squeal. It's all just a dream.

fold

The little, green pea wakes up on her leaf on the beach. "It must be time to go home!"
