ed - Past Tense

The suffix - ed turns a verb into past tense.

Past tens may be regular (jumped) or irregular (slept).

Sometimes - ed says /e+d/ like in needed; sometimes it says /d/ like in played; and sometimes it says /t/ like in jumped.

Double

One syllable, one vowel, one final consonant = double the consonant.

throb - throbbing

stop - stopping

Silent e

When adding an ending that starts with a vowel, the silent e goes away.

make - making

joke - joking

smile - smiling
