

Name: _____ Date: _____

Task 3 Identify errors and correct them.

(a) Find up to 15 spelling or punctuation errors and correct them.

Fascinating Science

Stuart, a scientist who was fascinated by the muscles of the Human body, conducted many scientific experiment to lern more about how muscles work. Stuart's graitest scientific achievement was his study of how to cure a musle abscess. his schedule was frequently fill with science experiments and scientific presentations.

Stuart's recent presentation featured a of a man ascending a mountain. The background scenury was beautiful. Using scissors, stuart had cut the outline of individual muscles and attached them to the model of the man It was a fascinate scientific presentation the muscles of the human body.

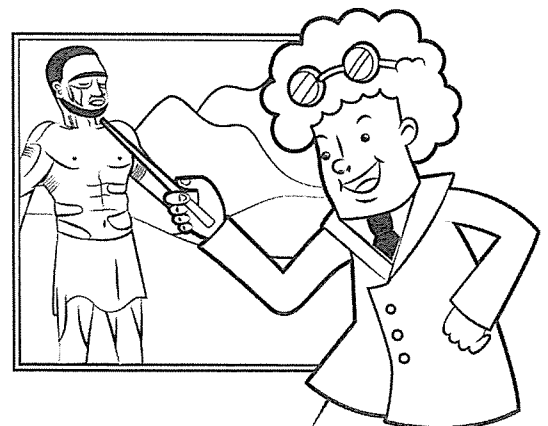

(b) Check your work. How many errors did you find? _____

Task 4 Copy the story carefully.

Use your best pencil grip, writing posture and letter formation to rewrite the story.

Task 5 Do your dictation.

Listen carefully to the story being dictated. Use the spelling, writing and punctuation that you have practised to write the story.

Today's focus:

Paste the appropriate sample rubric (located on pages 7 and 8) to the right.

